

Welcome to your application for The Crucible, DMU's flagship business support programme that'll help make your business idea a reality nurture your fledgling start up. In order to apply, you need to:

- x Be a DMU graduate, in your final year of an undergraduate programme or on a postgraduate course at DMU
- x Be a DMU alumni
- x To have an innovative, creative and/or unique idea you want to commit to developing
- x Have passion, an entrepreneurial mindset and be dedicated to setting up your business
- x Have a minimum of 3 days a week you can spend on your business

Pleaseattempt all questions below (if you don't know an answer, just say so) and send the completed form, along with a short video telling us all about your business idea (max 5 minutes) to crucible@dmu.ac.uk

CLOSING DATE FOR APPLICATIONS 5 August. You will hear from us the following week.

FIRST QUESTION -

Sector (eg fashion, food, tech)
Email
Website
Course studied at DMU
Graduation Year
Lead tutor

Do you have a co founder? What are their details?
2. THE IDEA
2a: What's your idea in a nu design, its functionality)	tshell -and what's innovative about it (for example, is it the
2b. How did you come up w	ith the idea?
2c. What stage is your idea hinking things through?	at -do you have an online shop, for example, or are you st

3. ABOUT THE MARKET
Have you done any market research like focus groups or surveys, or asking customers?
3b Who are your competitors? Have you done any research yet to see who else is selling similar goods/services?
4. FINANCE
What start-up costs do you have? For example do you need prototyping, training, materials and supplies, equipment.

Through The Crucible, we offer seed funding to participants to help them attend trade shows, networking events and the like.

Are there any events you've identified that it would be useful to attend?

5. GROWTH AND AMBITION
Where do you want to be in five years' time? Do you plan to grow the business? Tell us your vision here:
6. SHOW AND TELL We want to see your business! Send us any web links, social media accounted embed any images below
7. CURIOUS
How did you hear about The Crucible?

What's 'plan B' if you don't receive support from The Crucible?

CONFIDENTIALITYYour answers will be shared with our panel of judges, who will be looking for quality applications that show an entrepreneurial spirit, have a commercial application and are innovative.

WHAT HAPPENS NEXT?

If you're a successful applicant, you'll be intended to a three-day bootcamp where you will meet the trainers and mentors. You'll be informed of your start date as soon as possible.

ANY QUESTIONS? Send them to The Crucible director, Percy Emmett at crucible@dmu.ac.uk

GOOD LUCK!